

EXECUTIVE BIOGRAPHIES

Jim Nagengast

Tax Partner

Duties and Responsibilities

Jim Nagengast assumed the role of partner-in-charge of the tax practice at KMJ in June 2004 upon joining the firm. As partner-in-charge of the tax practice, Jim is responsible for the overall execution and delivery of services extended to clients in this area.

Professional Experience

Before joining KMJ, Jim spent over 10 years with international accounting firms including his last eight with Deloitte & Touche, LLP. He has extensive experience in corporate, partnership and individual tax planning and compliance. Including mergers and acquisition structuring for both buyers and sellers issues, due diligence and compliance issues related to such transactions. Jim also spent three years in the international tax group focusing on both inbound and outbound structuring of cross-border direct investments or acquisitions. Jim's consulting experience also includes working with companies in managing their effective tax rate and providing outsourcing services for the preparation of all facets of a Company's income tax provisions.

Education and Credentials

Jim graduated from California State University, Fullerton where he earned a Bachelors of Arts in Business Administration degree - Accounting. Jim received his Masters of Science degree in taxation from Golden Gate University.

Professional and Community Activities

Jim is a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. Jim is also actively involved as a youth sports coach in Anaheim Hills CHSA and Anaheim Hills Little League.