KMJ | CORBIN & COMPANY ANNOUNCES NEW DIRECTOR OF BUSINESS DEVELOPMENT RICK LANGE

IRVINE, Calif. (January 1, 2007)—KMJ | Corbin & Company announced today that it has selected 13-year industry veteran Rick Lange as its new director of business development. The announcement coincides with the firm’s decision to change its name from Corbin & Company to KMJ | Corbin & Company and continue to grow its existing services in the San Diego market. Lange will oversee new business development in both Orange and San Diego counties.

“We are confident in charging Rick Lange with the task of new business development. His strong work ethic and attention to detail make him well-suited to the position, where he will act as liaison between the partners and our clients,” said Kendall Merkley, the firm’s managing partner since 2005. “His exceptional communication and relationship-building skills will certainly facilitate his continued success within the industry, benefiting our extensive regional client base.”

With the firm’s newly announced opening of its office in San Diego, Rick will seek to add value to the firm by establishing and maintaining relationships with a new generation of client and referral source contacts.

“KMJ | Corbin & Company is the tenth-fastest growing accounting firm in the middle market public company space, and has developed a platform that’s unique within the industry,” explained Rick. “I feel fortunate to have the chance to contribute to a firm like KMJ that has done a magnificent job building up their personnel based upon the needs of a constantly growing market space. I’m looking forward to adding to KMJ’s already well-established integrity and professionalism.”

Prior to his appointment as director of business development, Rick was director of business development for an international and two regional firms. He has extensive experience in the financial markets and holds Series 7, Series 24, and Series 27 licenses.

Rick graduated from California State University, Fullerton, with a bachelor’s degree in communications, and an emphasis in advertising. His new role with KMJ | Corbin & Company will involve coordinating strategic cross-referral relationships and communicating with other service providers, executive recruiters, private equity groups and venture capitalists in both Orange and San Diego counties.

About KMJ | Corbin & Company

KMJ | Corbin & Company, originally founded in 1983, is one of the region's leading multidisciplinary accounting, audit and tax firms. Committed to the highest standards of professional service, the firm sets itself apart by delivering the extensive industry specialization and technical expertise of a national firm, but with the accessibility, service continuity and level of personal relationship expected from a local business. KMJ provides accounting, auditing, tax and consulting services to public and private companies in the small to middle markets. KMJ works closely with companies in a wide range of industries including manufacturing, distribution, technology, real estate, services and not-for-profit. Ranked nationally among CPA firms for its services provided to public companies, KMJ's resource network stretches locally with offices in Orange and San Diego counties, and nationally and internationally through an alliance with The International Accounting Group (TIAG), a worldwide network of independent accounting firms.
