KMJ Corbin & Company Names Another New Partner

September 1, 2014 - KMJ Corbin & Company in Costa Mesa, California is pleased to announce the promotion of Tom Shoemaker to partner in the firm's audit practice. A certified public accountant with more than 15 years of experience in public accounting, Shoemaker has spent most of professional career at KMJ. Shoemaker is a resident of Irvine, California. He will focus his practice on public and private companies in software, biotech, and a variety of other industries.

"We are delighted to welcome Tom as a partner of KMJ" said Mike Faddoul, Managing Partner of KMJ. "Tom's ability to provide first-rate accounting and auditing guidance and strategies has earned him the reputation of being a top accountant and auditor in the Orange County business community."

Tom is a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants and California Society of CPAs. He holds a Bachelor of Arts in Accounting from UCLA and an MBA from the University of Southern California.

KMJ provides accounting, auditing, tax and consulting services to public and private companies in the small to middle markets. We work closely with companies in a wide range of industries including technology, manufacturing, distribution, life sciences, not-for-profit, professional services, real estate, and broker-dealers.

We have offices located in Costa Mesa, Carlsbad, and Woodland Hills, California. These locations allow us to adequately serve clients throughout all of Southern California. Our resource network stretches nationally and internationally through our membership in The International Accounting Group (TIAG), a worldwide alliance of independent accounting firms. We have extensive SEC audit and accounting experience and are registered with the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (PCAOB).
