KMJ Names David Kandel as a Tax Manager

May 1, 2015 – KMJ Corbin & Company of Costa Mesa, California is pleased to announce the promotion of David Kandel to Tax Manager. David joined KMJ in 2010 after working with Moss Adams in Pasadena, California. David graduated with a Bachelor’s of Science Degree in Accounting from Loyola Marymount University in 2008. David is a member of CalCPA.

David’s tax experience includes high net-worth individuals, not-for-profit organizations, closely held corporations, and partnerships.

“We are thrilled with David’s promotion to manager,” said Jim Nagengast, partner in charge of KMJ’s tax department. “He will be a great addition to our management team as we grow and develop our capabilities to provide world-class tax planning and compliance services to our clients.”

KMJ provides accounting, auditing, tax and consulting services to public and private companies in the small to middle markets. We work closely with companies in a wide range of industries including technology, manufacturing, distribution, life sciences, not-for-profit, professional services, real estate, and broker-dealers.

We have offices located in Costa Mesa, Carlsbad, and Woodland Hills, California. These locations allow us to adequately serve clients throughout all of Southern California. Our resource network stretches nationally and internationally through our membership in The International Accounting Group (TIAG), a worldwide alliance of independent accounting firms. We have extensive SEC audit and accounting experience and are registered with the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (PCAOB).
